

Speak Up Review of NHS Ambulance Trusts

Share your views and experiences

Thank you

Thank you in advance for sharing your views and experience. We know that speaking up can be a difficult thing to do.

About this review

The National Guardian's Office is carrying out a Speak Up Review of NHS Ambulance Trusts in England. Our review aims to inform understanding of the speaking up culture in ambulance trusts to identify learning and make recommendations for improvement.

We want to learn from the views and experiences of workers (including volunteers, contractors and ex-colleagues) and are seeking to facilitate this in multiple ways, including through this form to invite the views and experiences of workers. The answers you provide to the questions below will inform our findings.

We will not investigate the handing of individual speaking up cases as part of this review.

Please see here for further information regarding the review, including the terms of reference.

Confidentiality

We are committed to creating a psychologically safe environment where individuals feel able to speak up to the review.

We will not disclose identifiable information you share with us as part of this review with others, including individuals in the participating trusts, without your express consent. In some circumstances where, for instance, there is an immediate risk of harm to an individual, we may need to take further action. In such cases, we will act while protecting your confidentiality as much as possible. We will liaise with you in all cases where confidentiality may be affected. Please see our privacy policy here for more information.

Instructions

- When answering the questions on the next page, please feel free to draw from your own experiences of speaking up and/or your observations generally about the speaking up culture in your trust.

- The questions in the table below are not mandatory. Please feel free to skip questions that you do not want to answer.
- Please return this form with your answers to the following email address by 23.59 on Friday 30th September:
ambulancespeakingupreview@Nationalguardianoffice.org.uk
- Forms received after this date may not be considered as part of this review.

Contact Us

Should you have any questions about this form or about our review more generally, please do not hesitate to get in touch by emailing the following address:
ambulancespeakingupreview@nationalguardianoffice.org.uk

Personal Information

Name:

Trust:

Role:

Banding/grading:

Please tell us about your experiences of the speaking up culture in your trust.

What works well? Why?

What are the challenges? Why?

Is the speaking up culture improving? If so, how? If no, what makes you feel that way?

What change(s) would improve the speaking up culture?

Please add any other information you would like to share.